

AMAZING GRACE

● A - maz - ing grace, how sweet the sound
That saved a wretch like me
I once was lost, but now am found
Was blind, but now I see

● 'Twas grace th - at taught my heart to fear
And grace my fears relieved;
How precious did that grace appear
The hour I first believed!

● Through many dangers, toils and snares,
I have al - ready come;
'Twas grace th - at brought me safe thus far,
And grace will lead me home.

● When we've been there ten thousand years
Bright shining as the sun,
We've no less days to sing God's praise
Than when we first begun

Rise up, O Eastern Sun

From the depths, deep depths of Ocean

Ascend the heights, to their highest

In the East...there is the Sun!

This chant was composed by the Kanakaole Ohana from Hawaii island and celebrates the rising of the Sun in the east. It makes reference to the Sun, the Ocean, the Heights of the Heavens to metaphorically connect us to Creator and the world around us.

Sweet Lady of Waiahole by Bruddah Waltah

F
Early in the morning, she would gather all her island fruits

F7 Bb
And pack them as she starts another day

Bbm F Dm
Carefully she makes her way, beside the mountain stream

Gm C7 F C7
As she sings an island chant of long ago

Chorus

F Bb F
Sweet lady of Waiahole, she's sitting by the highway

Gm C7 F C7
Selling her papaya, and green and ripe banana

F
Walking down her damp and rocky road her humble wagon stops

F7 Bb
She watched the sun creep through the valley sky

Bbm
Smiles and wipes the sweat up from her brow

F Dm Gm
Continues on, and starts her journey through

C7 F C7
The highway rising sun

Chorus

Later in the evening, she would gather all her island fruits

F7 Bb
And pack them as she ends another day

Bbm F Dm
Carefully she makes her way beside the mountain stream

Gm C7 F C7
As she sings and island chant of long ago
